National Technical Library

National Technical Library, Czech Republic

The National Technical Library is a central professional library open to the public, which offers a unique collection of 250,000 publications freely accessible in open circulation. Its holdings form the largest collection of Czech and foreign documents from technology and applied natural sciences as well as associated social sciences. It contains a total of 1.2 million volumes of books, journal and newspapers as well as theses, reports, standards, and trade literature both in print and electronic formats. Besides its own collection, part of the Central Library of CTU in Prague and the Central Library of ICT holdings are accessible in NTK. In accordance with its statutes, NTK manages the project of building the National Repository of Grey Literature (NRGL). This project aims at gathering metadata and possibly full texts of grey documents in the field of education, science, and research. NTK likewise supports education in the field of grey literature through annual seminars in the Czech Republic.

The British Library, United Kingdom

The British Library is sponsor to the GL Conference Series for the third consecutive year. In December 1978, the British Library hosted the York Seminar. This event led to the establishment of EAGLE, the European Association for Grey Literature Exploitation and its SIGLE-database. Through the years, The British Library contributed 40% of SIGLE's more than 800,000 records. Now more than 30 years on, it will not go unnoticed that The British Library is represented on the GL12 Program Committee and is an Associate Member of GreyNet International.

EBSCO Publishing, United States

EBSCO now sponsors the GL-Conference Series six years running! EBSCO is the world's most prolific aggregator of full text journals including The Grey Journal. In 2005, TextRelease entered into an electronic licensing relationship with EBSCO Publishing. The full text of articles in The Grey Journal (TGJ) can be found in Library, Information Science & Technology Abstracts (LISTA) full text database. EBSCO is a worldwide leader in providing information access and management solutions through print and electronic journal subscription services, research database development and production, as well as online access to more than 100 databases and thousands of e-journals, and e-commerce book procurement. EBSCO has served the library and business communities for more than 60 years.

About the Host and Lead Sponsors:

United States

GL12 has secured the sponsorship of Information International Associates, Inc. Ila is a woman-owned, small business headquartered in Oak Ridge, Tennessee with over 20 years of experience providing innovation solutions to the Department of Energy, Oak Ridge National Laboratory, the Department of Defense, and other federal agencies. Ila has a world-class reputation in scientific and technical information services, national and international information policy and standards development, librarianship, and intelligence work. The company provides a full range of information management, systems, and technology services for both classified and unclassified environments. Ila's services include advanced information science in the fields of knowledge management, electronic records, website design, information analysis and retrieval, as well as metadata structures. Ila has proven experience in R&D strategic planning and technology roadmapping with 200 staff members working throughout the United States and in the United Kingdom.

Institute for Scientific and Technical Information, France

The Institute for Scientific and Technical Information (INIST) a subsidiary of CNRS, the National Centre for Scientific Research in France is sponsor to the International Conference Series on Grey Literature since its relaunch in 2003. INIST houses a huge library with extensive collections available to the public through document delivery services. Indexing services are also provided for (grey) literature in Science, Technology, Medicine, Humanities, and the Social Sciences. These services are designed to contribute to bibliographic databases. INIST's Information services are available online, as well as in a variety of electronic formats and media. A recent development is their memSIC, Open Archive on Theses in Information Science. It is an honor to have this national institute in the forefront of grey literature.

New York Academy of Medicine, United States

The New York Academy of Medicine, an Associate Member of GreyNet, has signed-on as sponsor of GL12. This marks the 7th year straight that NYAM sponsors the International Conference Series on Grey Literature. NYAM is one of the foremost-recognized organizations in the field of grey literature. The Academy Library seeks new ways to offer and enhance access to quality health information. Today, NYAM looks to initiate and support new technologies and services that improve the access to health for its wide audience of researchers, students, Academy Fellows, and the general public. The Grey Literature Report, a bimonthly web-based publication along with the detailed guide to organizations and agencies producing grey literature in the fields of Health Policy and Public Health are but two examples.

About GreyNet Newsletter

This serial publication endeavors to keep information professionals abreast of developments in the field of grey literature. The bimonthly newsletter gives exposure to GreyNet's information resources and frontline activities with special emphasis on the International Conference Series on Grey Literature. GreyNet's Newsletter replaces the monthly GL Conference Memoranda (2003-2008) and is made possible through the support of GreyNet's Associate Members and Corporate Authors: The British Library (United Kingdom), INIST-CNRS (France), New York Academy of Medicine (United States), and the National Technical Library (Czech Republic).

Grey Literature "information produced and distributed on all levels of government, academics, business and industry in electronic and print formats not controlled by commercial publishing i.e. where publishing is not the primary activity of the producing body." (Luxembourg, 1997 expanded in New York, 2004)
